

Paula Williams

Paula, the youngest of five children, was born in Nassau, Bahamas, December 31, 1927. She came to the United States of America at an early age and she lived in Miami, Florida, for a brief time.

Later, she relocated to New York City to be with her ailing mother, who died shortly thereafter. Paula remained in Brooklyn, New York, for forty-five years and raised two sons, Paul and Michael.

She retired at the age of sixty-five after having worked in the garment industry of New York for fifty years.

Not ready for serious retirement, she became the owner and operator of Morning Glory Day Care Center which she has been running successfully for the past ten years.

She has relocated to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where she plans to live out her remaining years with the help of God.
